MAPA MULTIMODAL SANTA CATARINA

2009

A map showing a coastal route from Armação da Piedade to Rio das Ostras. The route is marked with a red and yellow double line. Road 101 is shown as a grey line. The Rio Biguacu is depicted as a blue line. Several locations are labeled: Armação da Piedade, Caiieira, Ilha do Ratão Grand, Ilha do Ratão Pequeno, and Pon. A compass rose indicates North (N), South (S), and a local landmark (L). A scale bar shows distances of 0, 10, 20, and 30 km. The map is framed by a black border.

The map illustrates the southern coast of Brazil, specifically the state of Santa Catarina. The coastline is divided into the Baía Norte (Northern Bay) and Baía Sul (Southern Bay). The Oceano Atlântico (Atlantic Ocean) is to the east, and the Ilha de Santa Catarina (Santa Catarina Island) is to the west. Major cities shown include Florianópolis, São José, and Palhoça. Key landmarks include the Ilha do Mel, Ilha das Três Irmãs, and Ilha de Santa Catarina. Major roads marked on the map include PR-408, PR-410, PR-433, and PR-401. The Rio Biguaçu is also depicted. A compass rose in the top left corner indicates North (N), South (S), East (E), and West (W). A scale bar at the bottom right indicates a scale of 1:250,000.
